

English 100: Expository Writing
Student Learning Outcomes

Adopted 5/09/06

Upon successful completion of English 100, the student will be able to do the following:

1. Understand and employ the writing process, including pre-writing, drafting, revising, and editing;
2. Write an essay with a clear thesis and purpose, in a form appropriate to intended audiences;
3. Analyze a variety of rhetorical modes, and employ them in a cohesive essay structure;
4. Demonstrate critical thinking in the process of writing;
5. Read critically and synthesize credible information for use in writing, and document it correctly;
6. Use credible sources, and document them correctly;
7. Choose language appropriate for academic writing;
8. Proofread so that writing is free of grammatical and mechanical errors.